PRICE FIVE CENTS

WESLEYAN TOMORROW.

Both Teams Ready for Hard Contest.

On Saturday, the 'varsity will have a chance to show what stuff they are made of when they line up against the strong Wesleyan team on Andrus Field in Middletown. This is the biggest game of the season for both colleges, owing to the rivalry extending over a number of years, and a big crowd is expected to see the game. A special train will be run from Hartford, leaving Union Station about one, and leaving Middletown on the return at a quarter of five. The round trip fare is 55c. Reservations for automobiles can be obtained by writing to the Wesleyan Book Store. The Trinity stands should be well decorated with their colors, as enterprising students expect to sell yellow chrysanthemums on the train, and on the field. The game will begin at 2.30.

Both teams have been put through hard practice this week, and are in good condition for the struggle. Coach Gettell has been giving the players secret practice every afternoon this week. On Tuesday, the practice was devoted mainly to perfecting plays and punting, with a short scrimmage against the scrubs. Wednesday the men were put through hard scrimmage practice, the scrubs being instructed to use some of Wesleyan's plays, particularly the forward pass, to give the 'varsity practice in breaking them up. The team showed great improvement toward the end of practice, successfully breaking up many of the plays, and smashing through the scrub line on the offense in fine style. Meyer and Smith were given a chance in the backfield, and showed up well, making substantial gains when called on.

Thursday was the last practice on Trinity Field before the game. Hard scrimmage practice was repeated, while the college body, on the bleachers, practiced yells and songs for use to cheer the team on to victory Saturday. Great improvement was noticeable all through the line-up. This afternoon the team left for the Meriden Country Club, where they spend the night, going on to Middletown in the morning.

With the exception of Hudson, the team is in good physical condition. Hudson's knee is improving daily, and he will probably be able to play Saturday. Lawlor and Jim Moore are in good shape again. Kinney is the heaviest man on the squad, tipping the scale at 199 pounds. Next on the list is Hudson, at 196 pounds. He is picking up weight fast, and will probably reach the 200 mark by the end of the season. Lawlor has trained down to 184, while the other members of the backfield, Collett and Sage weigh 167 and 156. The line averages a little lighter than the backfield. John Moore

CONCERT AT SUFFIELD.

Successful Opening of Musical Club Season.

On Tuesday evening, the first concert of the musical clubs was given at Suffield, under the auspices of the "Parish Aid Society of Calvary Episcopal Church." The Suffield town hall, where the entertainment was held, was completely filled, and it was found necessary to stop the sale of tickets before the time scheduled for the concert to begin.

At 8.15 the following program was opened:

- 1 There's a College on the Hill
Glee Club
- 2 Mammy's Shufflin' Dance
Mr. Fort and Glee Club
- 3 There's a Girl in Havana
Mandolin Club
- 4 Vocal Solo Mr. C. E. Craik, Jr.
- 5 Violoncello Solo Mr. Pierce
- 6 At Trinity
Glee Club
- Intermission
- 7 Barcarolle from Tales of Hoffman
Quartet
- 8 Recitations Mr. Brainerd
- 9 Medley Mandolin Club
- 10 When Uncle Joe Plays a Rag
Mr. Spofford and Glee Club
- 11 Vocal Solo Mr. Fort
- 12 Piano Solo Mr. McCabe
- 13 'Neath the Elms

The entire program was very well rendered, Mr. Fort and Mr. Craik in their solos, and Mr. Brainerd in his recitations deserving especial credit. The work of the clubs was very gratifying to their leaders and trainers and, there is every indication that the college will be represented by one of the best musical clubs in years.

After the concert, the members adjourned to the nearby residence of Mrs. S. S. Lansing, who assisted by several young ladies of Suffield, served them with refreshments.

A number of college songs, ending with "Good-night, ladies," closed the social part of the evening, and with a long "Trin" for Suffield, the concerters boarded the homeward-bound car.

SOPHOMORES HAPPY.

Faculty Decides That Men on Probation May Play in Class Games.

At the regular weekly meeting of the faculty held last Tuesday, it was voted to so alter the rule regarding the participation in interclass contests that the fact of a student's being on probation should not interfere in any way with his taking part in such contests. In other words, students may represent their campus classes in interclass athletics, whether on probation or not. This ruling was made in deference to a request on the part of the college senate for such action. The new rule will enable a number of sophomores who are on probation, to play for 1915 in the underclass football game, which was postponed from last Monday until this coming Monday at 4 p. m.

IVY BOARD MEETING.

Definite Plans Laid for the 1914 Publication.

A meeting of the 1914 Ivy committee was held on Wednesday afternoon to discuss the plans and prospects of the next Trinity year book. Editor-in-Chief Borchert expressed disappointment at the slowness of the business department in getting after paying advertisements and urged them to increase their efforts in this respect. He pointed out that it was necessary to get this side of the publication well under way before much progress could be made in other directions, as the success of the book depended largely upon the extent of advertising carried in its pages.

Considering the talent available in the college, and the fact that each Ivy board has one more preceding board from whose experience, additions and shortcomings it can draw, the editors agreed that there was no reason why the 1914 book should not be superior to any in the past.

One or two of the fraternities are to introduce new cuts for their respective headings in the pages allotted to them, which will mean that new plates must be made, consequently additional expenses incurred. To meet these and other additional expenses, the board decided to raise the assessment for each fraternity from $10 to $15. To offset any possible objection to this, the suggestion was made that a copy might be donated to every fraternity lodge.

After long discussion of contract offers, Plimpton's was decided upon as the best firm with which to entrust the compiling of the book. There are added advantages, also, in employing a local printer.

More definite plans for producing a superior annual were formulated, and it is now certain that serious work will begin in collecting material and in arranging improvements.

Next Concert at Putnam.

The next scheduled concert of the Glee Club is at Putnam on the twelfth of December. It is to be under the auspices of the church of which the Rev. C. J. Harrison, '05, is rector. About twenty members of the Glee Club will make the trip, leaving Hartford late in the afternoon and returning at about eleven the next morning. Last year the 1914 quartette, consisting of Rosenbaum, Spofford, Craik and A. Walker journeyed to Putnam, and evidently made a good impression, as now the entire club is wanted.

Change in Library Schedule.

Beginning Wednesday, November 13, the college library will be open Wednesday evening from 7.30 to 10.00 o'clock, making the official schedule as below:

Week Days—8.45 a. m., to 12.45 p. m.
1.45 p. m., to 4.45 p. m.,
7.30 p. m., to 10.00 p. m.
Sunday—7.30 p. m., to 10.00 p. m.
Exceptions: The Library is closed Saturday afternoon and evening.

CREHORE CAPTURES LAST RACE.

Wessels a Close Second for Honors in Cross Country Series.

Crehore, '14, won the last of the series of four cross country runs Tuesday afternoon, and clinched his right to claiming the trophy. Captain Wessels, '14, finished second, as he has done in every race except the third, which he won. The contestants were out for blood in the final struggle of the series and a killing pace was the result. Crehore clipped off 20 seconds from the record made by Wessels in the last run and all the others bettered their first efforts by almost a minute's time. An exciting finish was afforded by Wessels and Crehore, as the former reached the campus in advance and was not passed by the latter until within twenty-five yards of the finish, when Wessels temporarily collapsed and Crehore finished the winner. Wessels subsequently made an easy second.

The order and time of the finishers is given below:

Crehore, '14—19 min., 27 sec.
Wessels, '14—19:50
W. George, '16—20:09;
T. Peck, '15—20:50
Loudon, '16—21:10
Stratton, '15—21:12
Easterby, '16—21:54

With the cross country work over, outdoor practice for this fall is finished. Great credit is due Captain Wessels for his hard and continuous work in behalf of the track interests of the college. A faster and better trained team is assured for next spring as a result of the cross country series. Several new men were developed and all of the old ones showed marked progress. Of the new men, Peck, '15, Bissell, '15, and George, '16, showed up particularly well.

After Christmas indoor track and gymnasium work will be taken up in preparation for the indoor meets later in the winter. There is hope of a speedy relay team to enter these meets.

PRELIMINARY DESIGN UNDER WAY.

Mr. Morris at Work on Plans for New Library.

Mr. Benjamin W. Morris of New York City, who has been chosen to design the new building donated by Mr. J. P. Morgan, spent November 7th in Hartford and had a long consultation with the building committee of the college. The committee explained their wishes in regard to the new library, and Mr. Morris will turn in a preliminary design in a short while. No site for the structure has yet been fixed upon.

"NOW THEN TRINITY"

Trinity-Wesleyan Football Game
at Middletown Tomorrow.

We want to take this opportunity to congratulate Fort and his glee club on their good work Tuesday night and on their excellent prospects for a successful year. It seems that at last Trinity will be able to turn out a glee club of which she may feel proud, something which has not happened in late years. The material is good, and in Mr. Weyhe the club has secured an able coach. Furthermore, the members of the club, the coach, and the leader are in entire sympathy with one another, and this fact will go a long way towards success.

Judging from a notice which was on the bulletin board yesterday, we surmise that it is the intention of the cheer leader to indulge in a little singing at the Wesleyan game tomorrow. We hereby get down on our knees and humbly beg him to reconsider his intention. Far be it from us to cast a gloom on anybody's vocal attempts, but we cannot help feeling that the less we sing the better off we will be. At best our singing is not very good. Wesleyan's singing at its best is probably the best in New England. If we try to compete with them the result will be a joke, so let us confine our energies to cheering. There can be no doubt of the fact that our cheering is as good as any, in quality if not in volume.

Senate Meeting.

Tuesday, Nov. 12, 1912.

Meeting called to order by President Moore at 12.45 p. m. The roll call showed Messrs. Somerville, Barber and Deppen absent. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Mr. Spofford reported for the Trophy Room committee.

Mr. Stites moved that the Senate petition the faculty to allow men to take part in underclass contests with their campus classes. Carried. President Moore appointed Messrs. Stites and Fitzpatrick to draw up the petition and send it to the faculty.

President Moore reported a request by President Luther that the Senate consider the advisability of putting the period during which the Freshmen-Junior banquet night be held, shortly before the Christmas vacation. After a short discussion, it was voted on motion of Mr. Fitzpatrick that further consideration of the matter be postponed until the next meeting of the Senate.

On motion of Mr. Stites the meeting adjourned.

S. H. EVISON,
Secretary.

registers 160 pounds, and James Moore 174. Howell weighs 164, Lambert 166, and Dunsford 172, while Castator goes to 180.

Wesleyan has been far from idle this week. Coach High has been putting the team through hard practice, with the scrubs using Trinity plays. Particular attention was given to perfecting the forward pass, and a new play called the Illinois shift. The whole college is much excited at the prospect of a possible Wesleyan victory after five straight defeats.

As to the final outcome of the game, no definite predictions can be made. Trinity has been victorious for the last five years, the scores ranging from 42-0 in 1908 to 14-13 in 1911. Both teams are largely composed of the same men that played in the close game last year, and both are equally determined to win. Consequently, the game is sure to be close and hard fought until the final whistle blows. By previous scores this year, too, the chances are nearly even. Both teams have played Bowdoin and New York University. Wesleyan only beat Bowdoin 7-6, while Trinity cleaned up for them to the tune of 27-0. Against N. Y. U. the results were reversed, Wesleyan winning by 26-0, and Trinity by 16-0.

Men:

No class of men need life insurance more than do professional men. As a rule, the income of a professional man is largely, if not wholly, dependent on his brain, and when the activity of the mind ceases, his income ceases, or is at once greatly reduced.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company offers to the professional man who desires to assure his wife and children for life, or for a specified term of years, the continuance of a substantial part, at least, of the income to which they were accustomed during his lifetime, a contract perfectly suited to these needs.

COLLEGE SING CALLED OFF.

Rain Prevents Practice on Bleachers.

The practice of college songs and cheers which was planned by Fort and Ward for yesterday afternoon, which was to have been held on the bleachers beside the football field, was called off on account of the heavy downfall of rain at the time appointed. The men gathered this afternoon in front of the main building and gave the team a rousing send-off when they left for Meriden.

FOOTBALL GAMES TOMORROW.

Some of the Important Gridiron Contests.

The four most important football games to be played on Saturday, November 16th, are between Yale and Princeton, Harvard and Dartmouth, Williams and Amherst, and Trinity and Wesleyan.

Yale students are offering odds of five to four on victory for the Blue, but at the same time the Tigers are working under extra strain in preparation for the combat. The Yale line-up has been changed again, but the coaches think that the present line will be the one to play on Saturday. Dartmouth is not making claims for the team on Saturday on account of the probable loss of Dave Morey, their star half-back. Harvard, also, has had a number of injuries in the past week. Whatever happens, Bob Dunbar says, the game will be clean, as it always is. Enthusiasm is plentiful at Williams, and the entire college body expect to cheer their team to victory.
